(vii) Other notes on writing:

1. Use of a table on inside pages: If a table is to be inserted in the text, there shall be "at least" five lines of text above or below the table, otherwise, the table shall be placed on another page.
2. When a table is quoted on a page, the table shall be inserted at a place below the quotation; if it is impossible to place the table right below the quotation, insert it somewhere as close as possible to the quotation.
3. If a table spans more than one page, list only the table number on the second page, followed by..... (Continued).
4. If a table spans more than one page, the table line over the column of table note(s) may be omitted, or its length shall be no more than 2.5 cm.
5. The size and font of the characters in the table shall be consistent, but may differ from those of the text (the size shall not be smaller than 10pt). The title of the table shall be placed above the table, the title of the figure below the figure, and there shall be an appropriate distance between the title and the figure (table).
6. There shall be at least 2 lines of text on each inside page.
7. There shall be at least 2 lines of text below the title of each main chapter and section.
8. The numerical part in the table, besides the p-value of the statistics (an asterisk * can be used to indicate the significance), shall be aligned according to the decimal points.
9. The page numbers shall be placed in the middle of the page footer.
10. If only a figure (table) is placed on a page, the content of the figure (table) shall take up more than one-third of the page space.

V. Inside pages

1. Paper size: Print with A4 paper.
2. Margins: 2.54 cm from the upper and lower edges, 3.2 cm from the left edge, and 2.54 cm from the right edge.
3. Fonts: Chinese-標楷體(DFKai-SB) , English-Time New Roman, size 14pt, thirty lines per page.
